Notes (optional)

Send Now Cancel

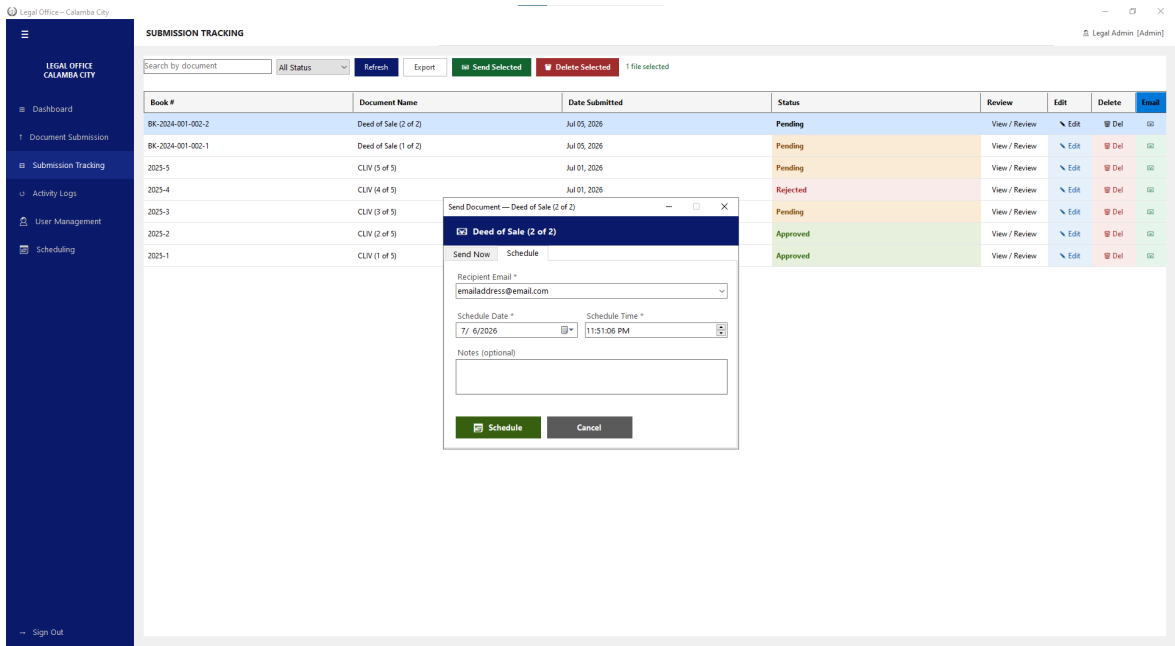

6. Click Send Now.
7. Wait for the confirmation message once the email has been delivered.

Note: The files must still exist on your computer for Send Now to work, since this sends the documents immediately using the files currently on your device.

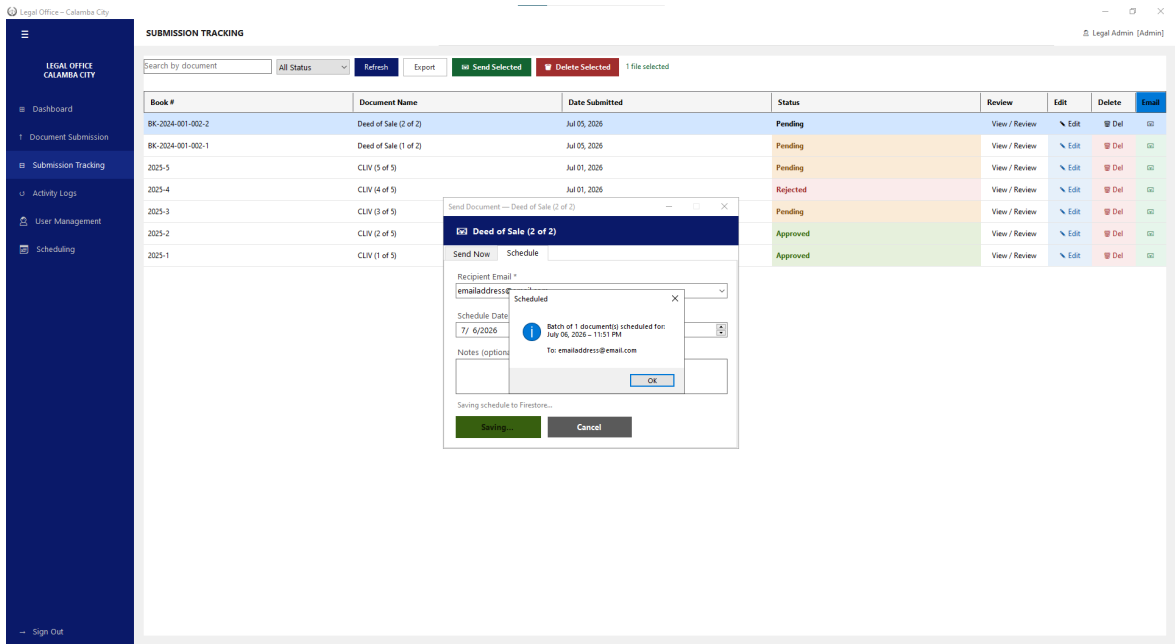

6. Scheduling an Email for Later

Use this feature to prepare an email now, but have it sent automatically at a future date and time — even if your computer is turned off when it's due.

- 1. From the Send Document dialog, click the Schedule tab.
- 2. Enter or select the Recipient Email address.
- 3. Choose the Schedule Date using the date picker.
- 4. Choose the Schedule Time using the time picker.
- 5. (Optional) Add any Notes for the recipient.

- 6. Click Schedule.
- 7. Wait for the confirmation message showing your scheduled date, time, and recipient.

7. Managing Scheduled Emails

- 1. Click Scheduling from the left sidebar.
- 2. Use the status filter (All, Pending, Sent, Cancelled) to narrow down the list.
- 3. Click Refresh to reload the latest schedule statuses.
- 4. Review each row for the recipient, scheduled date/time, and current status.
